HISTORY

Founded in 1845, the firm originally established as Studio Legale del Senatore Andrea Guarneri, then Studio Legale Cuccio Guarneri, and in 1974 changed to Studio Legale Fiorillo & Associati.

The firm specializes in assisting foreign and local corporate clients.

With its strategic location our firm represents a reference for all the companies that wish to open a business in the Southern Mediterranean area or that want to invest abroad.

THE FIRM

STUDIO LEGALE FIORILLO & ASSOCIATES is a mid-size, growing, and dynamic law firm with offices in Messina and Milan. Established in 1845, the Firm specializes in different areas of practice with special emphasis to international law. We have affiliate offices in Bari, Palermo and Turin.

The Firm represents a broad spectrum of clients, from small companies to large corporations, as well as financial and governmental entities. Our clients benefit from the legal talents and skills of our professionals, and from their understanding of the clients' business.

Advising clients in significant disputes often involving foreign clients requires strategic planning and co-ordination and the Firm pays particular attention to the organizational aspects of its advice, including in the due diligence and investigative phases of litigation. In particular, the Firm has consolidated professional experience in the often very complicated implications of the contemporaneous applicability of different laws and conflicts of jurisdiction and law.
